

Telegraph & Argus

84
JOBS
INSIDE

ALDI KILLER: SENTENCE REDUCED ON APPEAL

Judges say term set by Bradford court was 'too high' - PAGE 9

Wednesday, October 24, 2018

68p

telegraphandargus.co.uk

REMEMBER WHEN..?

Four pages of local history and nostalgia

- Railway heritage – from the air
- Bin bags and broomsticks

Councillors hit out after 133% increase over last eight years

CONCERN OVER SOARING NUMBER OF TAKEAWAYS

A HUGE rise in the number of takeaways in Bradford has seen 240 open their doors in the last eight years.

Despite planning legislation to keep the eateries away from schools, parks and leisure centres, the rules have been branded "a joke" by a leading councillor.

FULL STORY - P3 >>

Takeaways in Leeds Road, Bradford. The number of outlets has soared city-wide

Man cleared in machete attack trial

A FORMER Bradford soldier who jumped bail part-way through his trial for an alleged machete attack in Brighouse has been cleared of all the charges against him. Aron Barton, 28, of Bolton Road, Bradford, who saw service in Northern Ireland, was arrested from his mother's home after failing to turn up at Bradford Crown Court on Friday morning.

FULL STORY - P5 >>

Second accused denies murder

THE second man charged with murdering father-of-three Amriz Iqbal has appeared at Bradford Crown Court to deny the allegation. Mohammed Nisar Khan, also known as Meggy, pleaded not guilty yesterday afternoon.

FULL STORY - P7 >>

'Wow factor' for new bar

A BRADFORD bar owner is hoping to bring the 'wow factor' to the city centre with his new venture. Jason Avgousti is gearing up to open a new bar and eatery in the former Perfect Home unit on the corner of Westgate and Godwin Street.

FULL STORY - P22 >>

KINGS
SOLICITORS
24 HR LAWYERS

CARE PROCEEDINGS & FAMILY LAW SPECIALISTS

CHILDREN PANEL SOLICITORS,
FREE ADVICE 24 HRS A DAY
LEGAL AID AVAILABLE

Unrivalled expertise in Social Services involvement.

- Social Services involvement
- Non-accidental injuries
- Allegations of sexual abuse
- Allegations of neglect
- Allegations of fail to protect
- Allegations of DV
- Pre-birth assessments
- Contact with children in care
- Police Protection Orders
- EPO
- Intrim Care Orders
- PLO Meeting

OFFICE: 01274 720 417 • 24HR: 07577 30 40 50 • 116 Sunbridge Road, Bradford, BD1 2NE